Access to Medical Reports 1988

It may be necessary to apply for a medical report from a Doctor who has cared for you, and we ask that you give your consent by signing the claim form declaration. Before doing so, however, you should read this note carefully, as it sets out your rights under the Access to Medical Reports Act 1988, and the procedures for dealing with the reports. You do not have to give your consent, but if you do, you can say whether you wish to see the report (or have a copy of it) before it is sent to us. If you say you wish to see the report, we must tell you at the same time as we write to the Doctor and we must tell him / her you wish to see the report. You have 21 days to contact the Doctor about arrangements for you to see the report.

Whether or not you say you wish to see the report before it is sent to us, the Doctor must let you see a copy for up to six months after it is supplied (if you ask). If you ask the Doctor for a copy of the report, he can charge you a reasonable fee to cover his / her costs.

Once you have seen a report, before it is sent to us, the Doctor cannot submit it until he has your written consent. You can write to the Doctor asking him to amend any part of the report which you consider to be incorrect or misleading, and have attached to the report a statement of your view on any part which he will not amend.

The Doctor is not obliged to let you see any part of a report if, in his opinion, that would be likely to cause serious harm to your physical or mental health or that of others, or would indicate the Doctors intentions towards you or if disclosure would likely to reveal information about you or the identity of another person who has supplied information about you, unless that person has consented to the information relates to, or has been supplied by a health professional involvement in caring for you. In such cases, the Doctor must notify you in writing and you will be limited to seeing any remaining part of the report. If it is the whole of the report that is affected, he / she must not send it to us unless you give your written consent.
